The Chairperson tabled the draft minutes for inputs from the members. There were no amendments posed and the Committee indicated that they were satisfied with the contents of all the draft minutes submitted.

Member America proposed the adoption of all the draft minutes, which was seconded by Member Maseko and agreed to by the Chairperson.

4. Matters arising

Member Maseko requested that the Committee commence with requesting research for national, continental and international jurisdictions to be visited by the Public Accounts Committee. The Member indicated that the PAC has not engaged nor visited any jurisdiction on best practice oversight models for the past 10 to 12 years. The members unanimously agreed that the Committee will proceed to request research on jurisdictions to visit and then apply to the Speaker of WCPP to authorise a study visit to engage other Public Accounts Committees on their best practise oversight models.

Having concluded its business for the day, the Committee adjourned at 08h20.
