1. Welcome

The Procedural Officer welcomed the Members and informed the Committee that the meeting was being recorded and was being streamed live on YouTube. The Procedural Officer noted that no apologies had been submitted from any Members and proceeded with the first agenda item for the meeting.

2. Election of the Chairperson

The Procedural Officer informed the Committee that the purpose of the meeting was to elect a Chairperson for the Standing Committee on Finance, Economic Opportunities and Tourism as per Standing Rule 82(1) of the Standing Rules of the Western Cape Provincial Parliament. This was due to a change in Membership indicated in ATC 87-2022, released on 5 August 2022.

The Committee proceeded to the election of the Chairperson in terms of Standing Rule 82(1), which states that “A committee must elect a chairperson from its membership”.

Member Mackenzie nominated Member Murray as the Chairperson of the Committee. This nomination was seconded by Member Brinkhuis. There were no further nominations and Member Murray was duly elected as the Chairperson of the Committee.

The Chairperson informed the Members that the next Committee engagement would take place on 2 September 2022, where the Committee would be embarking on an oversight visit to the Procurement Client Centre. The Chairperson also indicated that she would meet with the Procedural Officer to discuss the Committee Programme, which will then be communicated to the Members.

The meeting adjourned at 12:06.
