(Please see the attached register below for a list of persons who were in attendance)

1. Welcome and apologies

The Chairperson opened the meeting by welcoming all the members, members of the public and presenters to the meeting. No apologies were received. The Chairperson indicated that the purpose of the meeting was to receive a presentation from the officials from the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition on the Copyright Amendment Bill [B 13D - 2017] and Performers' Protection Amendment Bill [B 24D - 2016] in Stellenbosch.

The Chairperson explained the process of engagement on the contents of the Bill, that some organisations indicated that they would make presentations on the proposed amendments to the two aforementioned pieces of legislation. Thereafter, the meeting will be made open for any further inputs from the members of the public who were at the meeting and who did not indicate beforehand their intentions to provide inputs on the bills.

2. Briefing by the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition

Mr Klaas Makgaba, Directorate: Consumer and Corporate Law, briefed the congregation on the origins and proposed changes to the two bills.

The Chairperson opened the floor for any questions of clarity from the attendees, including any inputs on the briefing by Mr Makgaba. No inputs were raised by the attendees at the meeting.

3. Briefings and inputs provided by the following organisations on the proposed amendments to the aforementioned bills

Mr Aynon Doyle, Head: Policy Analysis & Research at Multichoice provided inputs through a detailed presentation on the proposed amendments of the bills. In addition, Mr Theo Olivier from the ANC also provided verbal inputs on the proposed amendments to the bills.

The Chairperson opened the floor to the members of the public to pose any questions of clarity and to provide any inputs on the proposed amendments of the bills.

4. Resolutions/Actions

The Chairperson indicated that she would consider the inputs of all the stakeholders who provided written and verbal inputs at its meetings.

These inputs will subsequently be captured in the Matrix Document of the Committee and will be tabled for the Committee's consideration and further deliberation when it considers its negotiating mandate on this matter.

Having concluded the business for the day, the Chairperson thanked the Committee, stakeholders, and members of the public for their participation.

Having concluded its business for the day, the meeting adjourned at 19h00.
