19. Mr M K Sayed moved without notice: That the House expresses concerned over the Cape Town taxi strike's severe consequences on the education sector, by leaving almost half a million learners, including matriculants, at such a critical time of the year without access to classes; notes that this disruption undermines educational stability during a crucial phase; urges collaborative action to address this crisis swiftly and to safeguard learning; and requests that protection be provided to all forms of learner transport.
Agreed to.

20. Ms A Cassiem moved without notice: That the House takes notice that the country celebrated National Women's Day yesterday; notes that the country also witnessed hundreds of domestic workers, made up of women, marching all the way to the Union Buildings in order to submit a memorandum to the President of the country against the violation of their rights; notes that it is sad that in this day and age that women in this sector still suffer from sexual abuse, from constant attacks by dogs and from being exploited without compensation at the hands of their employers; notes that the abuse of women remains entrenched in society with little and close to nothing being done about it; notes that the statistics concerning gender-based violence also continue to rise with each day passing and the dysfunctional policing system also exacerbates the matter as the majority of cases do not even make it to the prosecution desk as a result of incompetent and unwilling police personnel; and calls for a better society in which women can live freely and be afforded the right to enjoy the full set of their protected constitutional rights.

Agreed to.

21. Mr T M Klaas moved without notice: That the House notes and condemns the killing of five people in Mbekweni on Monday night in a mass shooting that claimed the lives of three males and two females with the youngest victims aged 12 and 14 respectively; calls on law enforcement to move with speed in getting to the root of this matter and to arrest all those who are responsible for this unfortunate incident; notes that we cannot live idle in a society where people are butchered daily in our townships; and notes that we, as a society, must also come together and assist law enforcement agencies whenever we possess knowledge of who is behind these acts.

    Agreed to.

22. Ms C A T Murray moved without notice: That the House notes that our most vulnerable communities are being held at ransom by the inconsiderate and reckless actions of a few and the provincial economy as a whole is being brought to a standstill; notes that while we have the right to protest, we do not have the right to damage property or endanger the lives of others; recognises the heroic efforts of the Western Cape Government and the City of Cape Town in trying to find an urgent and lawful resolution to the strike, and to bring an end to the related violence; further notes that these strikes do not just have an impact on the taxi industry, but also causes damages to both personal and private property, including critical infrastructure; notes that the strike action undermines both investor and tourism confidence, with the UK's Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office issuing a travel alert last Friday to British nationals who plan to visit Cape Town; notes that this has the potential to reverse the significant progress that we have seen in recovering and growing our tourism sector since the pandemic; and notes that action to impede access to the Cape Town International Airport is irresponsible and damages the reputation of Cape Town as an international tourism destination, thereby threatening the thousands of tourism-related jobs in the city and province.

    Agreed to.

23. Mr G Bosman moved without notice: That the House notes the tragic death of LEAP Officer Zanikhaya Kwinana who was killed while carrying out his duties in Nyanga on Friday; notes that, while patrolling the area with two other officers, Officer Kwinana's vehicle came under fire and was struck multiple times by bullets fired by unknown assailants; notes that, while the other two officers escaped with their lives, Officer Kwinana died of his injuries; notes that Officer Kwinana exemplified the courage and the devotion to duty of the Western Cape's LEAP officers, and his loss continues to send shockwaves through the Western Cape; recognises that Officer Kwinana's death was a horrific consequence of the lawlessness that we have seen over the last few days; and calls for the urgent apprehension and punishment of his killers.

    Agreed to.

    Agreed to.
