DRAFT RESOLUTION

1. Mr M L Fransman: That the House noting –
 - (i) that the Premier has allegedly breached the handbook for the Provincial Cabinet, particularly section 3 that deals with Security Analysis;
 - (ii) further that the Premier has allegedly also violated the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa of 1996, section 130(3)(a) and(b);therefore resolves that the Premier of the Western Cape be removed from Office in accordance with section 130 (3) of the Constitution.

FURTHER BUSINESS

NOTICE OF MOTIONS

1. Ms B A Schäfer: That the House debates, as a matter of urgency, the dire water shortages and drought in the Western Cape.
2. Ms D Gopie: That the House considers whether the present Premier of the Western Cape is fit for purpose to perform the functions of that high office.
3. Mr C M Dugmore: That the House debates the conduct of the Premier in regard to her presiding over a Cabinet which procured the services of a serving member of the SAPS to provide intelligence-related services, which is clearly in breach of the oath of office she has assented to.

4. Ms S W Davids: That the House deliberates the serious violations of the Constitution, laws and rules by the Premier of the Western Cape.
5. Mr S G Tyatyam: That the House investigates whether the contract awarded to spy Paul Scheeper's company, Eagle Eye Solutions Technology, by the Department of the Premier in 2010 to debug the cellphones of Premier Zille and her Cabinet colleagues, and whether all other payments followed due processes.
6. Mr R T Olivier: That the House debates the DA's new school model for the Western Cape – the collaboration schools where private donors will play a vital role in its running and get majority seats in school governing bodies, something which has been widely criticised by education unions and civil society as privatisation of education.
7. Ms S W Davids: That the House notes the continued suppression of the Cape Minstrel Carnival and attempts to discredit its body by the DA-run City of Cape Town after the loose-tongued leader of the DA and mayor of the City lied to newspapers, alleging that the organisation did not pay for last season's parade.
8. Mr K E Magaxa: That the House notes the violence at Siqualo Informal Settlement which left several shacks burnt down and many families displaced as two factions battle for the leadership positions in the area, further notes it is because of the DA-led City of Cape Town's failed mediation as representatives from the Mayor's office interacted unsuccessfully with both factions for two weeks and condemns the violence.
9. Mr N E Hinana: That the House congratulates the Western Cape provincial government for the good story told and acknowledged by the Auditor-General that it provides good governance.
10. Mr C M Dugmore: That the House notes the DA-led City of Cape Town's city council remains hell-bent on victimising residents after it lost its bid to challenge the Western Cape High Court's ruling last month that stopped it from evicting families in Wynberg to make way for an arbitrary bus route.
11. Mr Q R Dyantyi: That the House notes that corruption within the DA in the Western Cape is exposed after DA-led Breede Valley municipality after much pressure started to investigate allegations of irregularities against two councillors serving on the mayor's executive team and calls on the local government to remove these councillors.
12. Mr L H Max: That the House congratulates Ms Jacqui Gooch, the Head of the Department of Transport and Public Works, for receiving the bronze award as best Head of Department during the Batho Pele Excellence Awards held in Bloemfontein.
13. Ms P Z Lekker: That the House notes Paul Scheepers, dubbed by newspapers as Zille's spook, made a brief appearance in the Bellville District Court on charges of fraud, perjury and violations of the Electronic Communications Act, and that he would face 19 charges of fraud, 19 of corruption and one count of tender fraud relating to the work his company did for the Department of the Premier in 2010.
14. Mr K E Magaxa: That the House notes the ANC conducting a successful march last week to the Cape Town Civic Centre against the dangerous divide-and-conquer strategy by the DA where mayor Patricia de Lille went into hiding as she did not want to account to the masses who demanded delivery of services.
15. Mr S G Tyatyam: That the House notes reports that former head of the South African secret chemical warfare programme, Dr Wouter Basson, lectured fourth-year medical students at Stellenbosch University, condemns the institution for allowing him to do so and commends the students' refusal to be taught by him.

16. Mr R T Olivier: That the House notes the continued protests at various institutions of higher learning around the country where political parties like the PAC, the EFF and the DA, as well as individuals, are using the protests to advance their personal interests.

17. Mr R D MacKenzie moved without notice: That the House:

- (a) noting that each year the national Department of Public Service and Administration recognises civil servants and departments for their dedication and commitment in ensuring that the best services are provided to the public at the annual Batho Pele Awards;
- (b) noting that the awards were based on the performance results of the Management Performance Assessment Tool (MPAT);

therefore, congratulates the Office of the Premier for receiving the silver award for the Best Functional Department at the annual Batho Pele Excellence Awards this month, and that our province is well on its way of becoming the best-run regional government in the world.

18. Mr R D MacKenzie moved without notice: That the House:

- (a) noting that each year the national Department of Public Service and Administration recognises civil servants and departments for their dedication and commitment in ensuring that the best services are provided to the public at the annual Batho Pele Awards;
- (b) noting that the awards were based on the performance results of the Management Performance Assessment Tool (MPAT);

therefore, congratulates Adv Brent Gerber, Head of Department of the Premier, for receiving the silver award for the Best Head of the Department at the annual Batho Pele Excellence Awards this month.
