1. Ms S W Davids: That the House debates the progress of land reform in the Western Cape and the DA provincial government's remarks that the DA was responsible for the success rate of settlements of land claims in the province.
2. Mr M Mnqasela: That the House debates the Western Cape's Disaster Management Plan, with specific focus on risk assessment, risk reduction as well as response and recovery action plans.
3. Ms T M Dijana: That the House investigates the allegations that residents from Langa who have been on the housing list for more than twenty years had been overlooked by the Provincial Department of Human Settlements for new housing in the area in its flagship hostel transformation project.
4. Mr R T Olivier: That the House investigates the reasons for the delay in the completion of the four schools that was due last year.
5. Ms C F Beerwinkel: That the House debates the uncaring and callous manner in which a primary school, 25 years in existence with staff who have served there as many years, were informed at the beginning of the third term that the Department of Education had not renewed the lease and the school will therefore close at the end of this year.
6. Ms S W Davids: That the House condemns disingenuous and misleading tomfoolery remarks by Hon Beverly Schäfer, that the DA was leading in terms of land restitution and the settling of land claims.
