

- (xiv) be vetted or screened;
- (xv) be employed and provides proof of employment;
- (xvi) provide proof of his or her residential address;
- (xvii) not have a criminal record or any criminal or departmental cases pending against him or her (all criminal or departmental cases must be declared); and
- (xviii) not have a tattoo which will be visible if the person wears a uniform.

(The National Commissioner may in his/her discretion and in exceptional circumstances, waive any of the requirements, where and if, such waiver will be in the interest of the Service.)

- (b) the selection criteria are set out in Regulation 3 of the Regulations.

- (2) A person may not be appointed as reservist if he or she —
- (a) was discharged as medically unfit from a previous employer;
 - (b) is a former member of the Police whose application for re-enlistment was rejected due to negative considerations;
 - (c) is a member of the Regular Force of the National Defence Force referred to in section 52 of the Defence Act, 2002 (Act No. 42 of 2002);
 - (d) holds a key position as determined by the Department of Labour;
 - (e) holds any post or office in a political party, organisation, movement or body;
 - (f) is actively involved in politics or who is an outspoken supporter of a political party and who may violate the non-partisan nature of the Police;
 - (g) is a full-time or part-time journalist;
 - (h) does not have a fixed residential address;
 - (i) is not in full-time employment;
 - (j) is a scholar;
 - (k) is a bouncer or chucker-out;
 - (l) is a member of a municipal police service (including a local law enforcement officer);
 - (m) is a sheriff or deputy sheriff;
 - (n) is in any manner connected to a brothel, escort agency or any other undertaking which —
 - (l) remunerates persons to perform sexual acts or striptease dancing, or serve as waiters or waitresses while naked or semi-naked;

- (ii) supplies persons to clients for purposes of allowing such clients to perform sexual acts with such persons;
 - (iii) sells, distributes or promotes any form of pornographic material or sexual aid (other than a sexual aid prescribed by a medical practitioner); or
 - (iv) is involved in the taking of or posing for pornographic photographs or the making of pornographic sketches, films, videos or computer readable material;
- (o) is in any manner connected to a business or industry which has contracted with or submitted a tender to the State to render a service or to supply a product to the Police;
- (p) is in any manner whatsoever involved in —
- (i) the private security industry (whether as director, partner or employee);
 - (ii) the taxi industry (this includes but is not limited to, the operation of a taxi service by the person himself or herself, or by employing another person, or the performance of remunerative work for a taxi association, group of taxi owners or operators or for a single taxi owner or operator);
 - (iii) the trade of liquor or the keeping of a tavern or shebeen;
 - (iv) the preparation or completion of applications for liquor licences;
 - (v) private investigation services (this includes, but is not limited to, performing tracing work as a tracing agent, money lender, debt collector or financial institution, the performance of private detective work, the interception of communications or the planting of electronic bugging devices);
 - (vi) the operation of a scrap yard (whether as owner or employee);
 - (vii) the micro lending services;
 - (viii) conducting the business of trading in second-hand goods;
 - (ix) the tow-in or breakdown service industry (this includes, but is not limited to, the operation of a tow-in or breakdown service by the person himself or herself or through another person, or the performance of remunerative work for an association of persons or entities operating tow-in or breakdown services, a group of persons or entities operating tow-in or breakdown services or for a single tow-in or breakdown service owner or operator);
 - (x) the gambling industry;
 - (xi) the preparation or completion of applications for firearm licences;
 - (xii) the rendering of a physical security service;
 - (xiii) insurance investigations and investigations on behalf of agencies handling claims against the Road Accident Fund;